- (2) The playing time of the National Song is approximately 3 minutes 10 seconds.

II. PLAYING OF THE NATIONAL SONG

- (1) The official version of the National Song shall be played on the following occasions:

- (i) Civil Investitures;
- (ii) On arrival of the President at formal State functions and other functions organized by the Government, and on his departure from such functions;
- (iii) Immediately before and after the President addresses the Nation over All India Radio and Television;
- (iv) On arrival of the Governor/Lieutenant Governor at formal State functions within his State/Union Territory and on his departure from such functions;
- (v) When the National Flag is brought on parade.

- (2) The National Song shall be played on any other occasion, for which special orders are issued by the Government of India.

- (3) When the National Song is played by a band, the Song will be preceded by a roll of drums to assist the audience to know that the National Song is going to be played, unless there is some other specific indication that the National Song is about to be played, as for example, when fanfares are sounded before the National Song is played. The duration of the roll, in terms of marching drill, will be 7 paces in slow march. The roll will start slowly, ascend to as loud a volume as possible and then gradually decreases to original softness, but remaining audible until the seventh beat. One beat rest will then be observed before commencing the National Song.

III. MASS SINGING OF THE NATIONAL SONG

(1) The official version of the National Song shall be played accompanied by mass singing on the following occasions:

(i) On the unfurling of the National Flag, on cultural occasions or ceremonial functions other than parades. (This could be arranged by having a choir of adequate size, suitably stationed, which would be trained to coordinate its singing with the band etc. There should be an adequate public audition system so that the gathering in various enclosures can sing in unison with the choir; and printed lyrics of the official version of the National Song may be circulated amongst the participants, wherever required).

(ii) On arrival of the President at any Government or Public function (but excluding formal State functions) and also immediately before his departure from such functions.

(2) On all occasions, when the National Song is sung, the official version only shall be recited in mass singing.

(3) The National Song may be sung on occasions which, although not strictly ceremonial, are nevertheless invested with significance because of the presence of Ministers etc. The singing of the National Song on such occasions (with or without the accompaniment of instruments) accompanied by mass singing is desirable.

(4) It is not possible to give an exhaustive list of occasions on which the singing (as distinct from playing) of official version of the National Song can be permitted. But there is no objection to the singing of the National Song accompanied by mass singing so long as it is done with due respect as a salutation to the motherland and proper decorum is maintained.

(5) In all schools, the day's work may begin with community singing of the National Song. School authorities should make adequate provision in their programmes for popularising the singing of the National Song, National Anthem and promoting respect for the National Flag among students.

IV. GENERAL

(1) Whenever the official version of the National Song is sung or played, the audience shall stand to attention. However, when in the course of a newsreel or documentary the National Song is played as a part of the film, it is not expected of the audience to stand, as standing may interrupt the exhibition of the film and may create disorder and confusion rather than add to the dignity of the National Song.

(2) When the National Song and the National Anthem are sung or played, National Song will be sung or played first.

- (1) The full version of the Anthem shall be played accompanied by mass singing, on the following occasions:

IV. PLAYING OF FOREIGN ANTHEMS

- (1) At receptions to foreign dignitaries in India at which the giving of National Salute has been prescribed, full version of the National Anthem of the visiting dignitary's country should be played first, followed by the full version of the National Anthem of India.
- (2) At dramatic, film or other cultural festivals organised by a diplomatic or consular representative of a foreign country in India, the National Anthem of the foreign country concerned may be played with the National Anthem of India. The foreign Anthem should be played first followed immediately by the Indian Anthem.
- (3) At functions arranged by foreign Missions for celebrating their National Days, the National Anthem of the country holding the function may be played or sung. On these occasions if the President of India is represented by a Chief Guest not below the rank of a Cabinet Minister of the Central Government or by the Lieutenant Governor of Delhi (if the function is held in Delhi) the National Anthem of India may be played first followed by the playing of the National Anthem of the country hosting the function. This procedure will also be followed if the function includes proposing of the toasts to Heads of States i.e. the Indian Anthem should be played immediately after the toast has been proposed to the President of India, and the National Anthem of the foreign country should be played immediately after the toast to Head of that country is proposed. In case National Anthem of India and of the country hosting the function have been played at the beginning of the function, there will be no need to play the Anthem of either or both the countries if any toasts are proposed.

Note: When the National Anthem is required to be played immediately before or after the National Anthem of a foreign country, as laid down in Section IV above, there should be no simultaneous singing of the National Anthem. However, mass singing of the National Anthem should be required, when it is played immediately before or after the Anthem of another country in the event that the visiting dignitary and his delegation are singing their own National Anthem.

V. GENERAL

(1) Whenever the Anthem is sung or played, the audience shall stand to attention. However, when in the course of a newsreel or documentary the Anthem is played as a part of the film, it is not expected of the audience to stand, as standing may interrupt the exhibition of the film and may create disorder and confusion rather than add to the dignity of the Anthem.

(2) As in the case of the flying of the National Flag, it has been left to the good sense of the people not to indulge in indiscriminate singing or playing of the Anthem.
